PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—The hectic 1938 Pennsylvania primary election headed toward the home stretch today with virtually all the embattled candidates on the far-flung field of battle, pleading from the stump and over the air waves for votes.

Former Attorney General Charles J. Maguire continued his campaign as an independent candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination with another attack on the administration of Gov. George H. Earle at Sunbury.

Accusations Made
His charge that "Secretary of the Commonwealth David L. Lawrence and his associates" have made $2,500,000 in state insurance and bonding was promptly and emphatically denied by Lawrence.

Superior Court Judge Arthur H. James at Allentown accused his rival for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, former Governor Gifford Pinchot, with preparing to form a coalition with one of the Democratic factions that suffer defeat on May 17. He also charged that unless the New Deal is halted in its attempt to hamper industry, "this country will become a land of headcases."

Pinchot told a rally at Williamsport that if he is elected he will (Continued On Page Two)

PA NEW OBSERVES

It seems that there is a certain pet rabbit on the North Hill that likes to ride on the rear of a tri-cycle. The bunny was seen the other day riding on the rear axle, while the young owner of the tri-cycle pedaled along nonchalantly. Both appeared to take it as quite a matter-of-course.

If you like mystery stories, the Pa New's bookworm recommends "Moonstone" by Wilkie Collins. Another good book: "The Clunk in the Armour" by Mrs. Belle Lounsbury. (Not about a Chinaman.) Both books can be secured at the public library.

Residents along Walnut street dispute the assertion that East Washington street is rough. Compared to their thoroughfare, it is almost as smooth as a sidewalk, they assert. Pa New has driven over the street recently and believes there is some merit to their claim.

Corn should be a little higher than knee high by the fourth of July this year. One of Pa New's boys is corn through the ground already and is hoping that there will be no more frosts.

Spanish Insurgents Claim 400 Government Troops Slain In Attack

(International News Service)
MENDAYE, French-Spanish Frontier, May 6.—Four hundred Spanish government troops were slain as they attempted to attack insurgent positions along the Mediterranean coastal sector on the Castellon battlefield, reports from Salamanca stated today.

The government assaults were speedily repulsed, it was claimed, and numerous prisoners, as well as quantities of war materials, were captured by the insurgents.

At the same time, the insurgents said they carried out operations of their front lines near Alcoy where a "settlement" was reported captured. Bad weather continued to hamper major military operations on the coastal front, delaying the insurgent drive toward Castellon and Valencia.

Victories Claimed
From Barcelona, however, the government claimed victories in the Mediterranean and Pyrenees sectors. On the latter front, Barcelona authorities asserted, their troops captured Pladeneu, Puig Castibres and Besan near the Franco-Spanish border.

Fierce fighting raged on the Mediterranean front, it was stated, and violent insurgent attacks upon Cevas De Vinroma were bloodily repulsed.

Fighting was described as heaviest (Continued On Page Two)

Chief Deputy Dismissed By Co. Treasurer

Hartland Announces Action This Afternoon—Restitution Is Made SUM OF $1,300 IN PECULATIONS

At noon today County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland announced that he had dismissed Chief Deputy Bertha Patterson for peculations amounting to slightly over $1,300. Miss Patterson made restitution shortly before noon of all the money which was short in the check made, he said.

Some days ago Mr. Hartland conducted an investigation into a shortage which had developed in delinquent school taxes. After several days' checking he confronted Miss Patterson with the evidence and after some questioning she confessed, he says.

The dismissal was announced at noon and at that time no charges of embezzlement had been made against Miss Patterson. What course of action will be pursued is not known as yet.

The shortages were all in delinquent taxes turned over to the New Castle school board, it was stated. Under the law certain penalties on delinquent taxes are exempted if the taxes are paid within specified time limits. It appears from the investigation of Mr. Hartland that Miss Patterson had been collecting penalties, then doctoring the records so it appeared that the money had been collected while penalties were still exempted.

In her confession, Miss Patterson exonerated all the other employees of the county treasurer's office. Mr. Hartland stated. She said that no one but herself was involved.

The money represented in this case should not be confused with the shortages reported on Wednesday by Wolf and Company in their preliminary report to the county commissioners. This money is delinquent school tax money paid in the past year. The money mentioned in the auditor's report is money paid in 1935.

In her apartment today Miss Patterson said she had no statement to make.

Campaign Funds Being Solicited From City Payroll

Precedent Is Broken By Announcement Made In Pittsburgh

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 6.—Precedent was broken today with the flat announcement by the city administration headed by Mayor Cornelius D. Seely that it was soliciting campaign funds from city employees for the Earle-Jones Democratic ticket.

It marked the first time that an administration publicly admitted its solicitation of such activities. It was pointed out, however, that all contributions were made voluntarily.

Mayor Seely sent a brief note to his department heads announcing he was supporting the Earle-Jones ticket and that he would "permit" the solicitation of funds from city employees. He warned that "pressure methods" would not be tolerated and that solicitors could ask only those payrolls making more than $1,800 annually.

Nye's Proposal Gets Disfavor In Britain

By KINGSBURY SMITH

LONDON, May 6.—The resolution of United States Senator Gerald R. Nye for lifting the American arms embargo against Spain is viewed with deep concern by the British government. International News Service learned today.

Sir Ronald Lindsay, British ambassador to Washington, will be instructed informally to express Britain's hope that the Roosevelt administration will not support the Nye resolution, authoritative sources revealed.

Sir Ronald will point out that lifting the American embargo would further complicate the delicate task of the international non-intervention committee, which is seeking to prevent the Spanish civil war from engulfing other European nations.

He will also contend that such action would antagonize Italy and Germany and would come too late to prove of real help to the Spanish government, especially in view of the intention of the French government to reimpose non-intervention control along the Franco-Spanish border.

In addition, International News Service learned Britain is considering the possibility of having the non-intervention committee make a démarche to Washington against lifting the embargo.

No decision has yet been reached on this point, but it is possible Britain may persuade some other power to raise the question at the committee's next meeting.

Greta Elusive About Rumors Of Recent Marriage

Film Actress Denies That She Married Leopold Stokowski Secretly

(International News Service)
STOCKHOLM, May 6.—If Greta Garbo and Leopold Stokowski are married, the actress won't admit it. In fact, she was rather vigorous today in denying that her friendship with the famous symphony orchestra conductor led to the altar.

"Nothing has taken place—absolutely nothing!" she said in a written reply to reporters' questions. She would not talk about charges of New York film exhibitors that she is no longer a box-office draw.

Back from Italy, Garbo and Stokowski today were at the home of the star's mother at Haaby. To Greta's denial that she is married was added that of her brother, Sven Gustafson, who said: "I've heard nothing about it."

Sven said Stokowski will stay at Haaby only a few days, then go to Stockholm, where he has received an offer to conduct a concert.

Italian Military Hosts Paraded Before Hitler

ROME, May 6.—Chancellor Hitler and members of the German general staff today beheld an impressive sample of the military power backing up Premier Mussolini's boast: "Italy will defend her frontiers with bayonets, not arguments."

For nearly three hours Il Duce paraded under the critical eyes of Der Fuehrer, General Von Keitel, commander-in-chief of the Reich armed forces, and other Prussian militarists a steady stream of military forces.

Gigantic Review
Hitler watched goose-stepping Italian troops pass by in the gigantic Rome military review along with artillery units, tanks, cavalry—all equipped with the latest type of motorized war paraphernalia.

The "Siegfried" from Berlin, accompanied by King Emperor Victor Emmanuel and Premier Mussolini, watched the review move up the beflagged Via De Lambero silhouetted against an imposing background of the Coliseum and the Triumphal Arch of Constantine.

Thirty-five thousand infantrymen, moving with Prussian precision, goose-stepped past the reviewing stand, followed by 2,500 cavalrymen, 400 light and heavy tanks, all of latest design, and 200 motor-driven heavy field guns.

Also in the parade were 400 horse-drawn light artillery pieces, 500 (Continued On Page Two)

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Swinging completely away from its attack-and-condemn technique, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce today set in motion machinery designed to permeate a self-help doctrine through business leadership in every city and hamlet of the nation.

It was the decision to adopt this policy which brought behind closed doors, rejection of proposals for resolutions condemning the Roosevelt spending program, in the chamber's annual meeting just adjourned.

To Insill Confidence
This was revealed to International News Service by George Davis, Kansas City grain dealer, who was re-elected president of the chamber for another year.

Localized instillation of confidence in business leadership, rather than concentration of business recovery efforts in Washington, and through attacks on laws to which chamber members' units object was adopted as a policy, said Davis.

Fourth Man Pays Penalty For Slaying

Executed At Michigan City, Indiana, For "Head And Arms" Murder

(International News Service)
MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 6.—Heber L. Hicks, 40, died in the electric chair early today for the "head and arms" slaying of Harry R. Miller, retired Cincinnati fire captain.

Hicks' execution cleaned the slate of justice in atonement for the grisly crime. His three accomplices in a murder plot to rob the elderly Miller were executed last June 10. They were Frank Gore Williams, William Kuhlman and John Pololsky.

Miller was slain June 11, 1936, at his cottage near New Trenton, Ind. A long search for the missing man ended when the line covered torso, minus head and hands, was found under a culvert near Eminence, Ky. The killers had imbedded the head and hands in a square of concrete and tossed it into a lake near Carrollton, Ky., to avoid identification of the body.

Mussolini Hopes To Satisfy Hitler Without Upsetting Relations With Rest Of Europe

ROME, May 6.—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler has thus far failed to convince Premier Mussolini of the necessity for an open military alliance against communism, according to reliable indications today.

Il Duce takes the view that the military assistance pledges inherent in the Rome-Berlin axis are sufficient for all immediate needs and that a publicly-announced military and naval entente might serve only to arouse French suspicion and perhaps upset the present delicate negotiations for a general European agreement.

No Open Announcement
There is no question in the minds of competent observers, that an alliance already exists in effect. Despite reports to the contrary, there are no present indications the Hitler-Mussolini conversations will result in open announcement to this effect, however.

Well-informed sources declared that no other interpretation could properly be made of the article in the Giornale D'Italia by Vittorio Gayda, generally regarded as Mussolini's mouthpiece, in which he spoke of the impressive military and naval displays put on for Hitler's benefit.

"It is useful," he wrote, "for the world to know once again that Italy is solidly armed and continues to (Continued On Page Two)

City-Wide Parking Lot Strike Called

New Worries Confront Motorists In Pittsburgh As Result Of Action

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 6.—New parking worries were heaped today on the heads of Pittsburgh motorists with the issuance of a city-wide strike call of all garage and parking lot attendants.

George Schmitt, president of the "taxicab drivers' union," said the walkout, which had heretofore been confined to the downtown area, would blanket the entire city in an effort to force members of the Downtown Parking Association to recognize their wage demands.

The action was taken, the leaders declared, after the union learned the downtown employers also held financial interests in neighborhood lots. Attendants in the business section struck the first of the week to enforce action on pay increases ranging from $3 to $10 weekly.

Schmitt said only the lots and garages which have contracts with the union would be unaffected by the call. It was his intention, he continued, to throw petrol fires around all non-union lots in the city, with an estimated 400 men to go on the line this morning.

CHINESE AWAIT REINFORCEMENTS

SHANGHAI, May 6.—Denying Chinese claims of continued victories in Shanghai Province, Japanese authorities today asserted their troops in the Suchow sector are steadily pushing forward toward the Lunghai railway. China's vital "line" between the seacoast and the central interior.

Nipponese naval, military and air forces, Japanese headquarters spokesmen said are intensifying their attacks on Chinese Shanghai positions.

Chinese troop concentrations were bombed at Suhsien, Yungchow, Sioyang and Kaitaochen, dealing a "crushing blow" to the Chinese forces in that region estimated at 40,000 men.

Chinese Await Reinforcements
Meanwhile, the Chinese claimed they were awaiting reinforcements before launching fresh assaults on the Shanghai front.

From Hong Kong came a report that the Portuguese government of Macao has informed the Japanese consul general there that he was "disposed to seize any vessels disregarding the colony's neutrality."

This means that neither Chinese nor Japanese vessels will be allowed to operate against each other in Macao waters.

Seek To Force Wage-Hour Action

Drive Is Begun For Signatures

Need 218 Signatures To Petition To Call Measure Up For Action

FATE OF BILL IS MUCH IN DOUBT

By WILLIAM S. NEAL, International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The drive of the wage-hour bloc in the house for 218 members' signatures to a petition to call the Norton bill to the floor was formally opened today with fate of the legislation in doubt.

In spite of the enthusiastic claims of bloc leaders, private polls indicated that the petition drive may fail and the legislation thus be killed for the session.

Chairman Mary T. Norton, of the House Labor committee, was leading the battle for the petition to dis-charge the House Rules committee from further consideration of the wage-hour bill and force it before the house for a vote.

Leaders of the wage-hour bloc hoped to complete the petition today. If they succeed, the bill can be called up on May 23. But if they fail, to obtain the needed signatures by next Thursday, earliest possible action would be postponed until June 13.

"We must get a vote by May 23 or we are defeated," said Mrs. Norton.

While leaders of the bloc claimed more than enough pledges to assure victory, foes asserted that not more than 175 Democrats and 20 Republicans would sign the petition.

Denounces McCloskey

Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy, out after the Democratic nomination for governor, opened his campaign in Berks county by denouncing Matthew McCloskey, co-leader of Philadelphia Democrats, as a "contractor boss." Pennsylvania and the county needs an "application of the entire principles of the New Deal," Kennedy said. He added that "we cannot get that under an administration controlled by a contractor of Philadelphia or any other place."

Gov. Earle, the Democratic organization's senatorial candidate, declared at Pottsville that Republicans would repeal taxes on the rich and let the unemployed starve if they remain control of Pennsylvania. "Both Republican candidates (Phinchot and James) are prepared to sacrifice the unemployed" through a plan of "work the poor, spare the rich," the chief executive asserted.

Meanwhile, the Republican senatorial fight between Senator James J. Davis, seeking re-nomination, and State Senator G. Mason Ouellet, of Tioga county, a national committee man, remained a comparatively quiet affair.

To Intimidate Villagers

Japanese authorities claimed the bombing practice was not related to imposition of martial law at Peiping. Chinese police claimed 100 civilians had been wounded by the bombing, which they said was designed to intimidate nearby villagers.

Further explanations of the Japanese activity came with reports that a band of Chinese "Guerrillas" have been sighted eight miles from the Peiping west wall, and that others are amassed near Tungchow.

The only safe exit from Peiping today was said to be the railway at Tientsin, which is running according to a normal schedule.

Peiping dispatches said that city, seat of the Japanese-controlled government, and almost all Hopei province have been "virtually denuded" of Japanese troops, which were sent to reinforce the Nipponese operations in Shantung province.

Colgrove Makes New Charges

Says "Open Intimidation" Of W. P. A. Workers Is Taking Place In Campaign

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 6.—A charge of "open intimidation" of WPA workers was laid against the Kennedy-Guffey primary campaign today by Arthur Colgrove, Erie county Democratic chairman and property and supplies secretary in the Erie cabinet.

A. G. Mercer WPA director in Area 12, has appeared on speakers' platforms at rallies for Lieut. Gov. Thomas Kennedy, Guffey candidate for governor. Colgrove declared with this comment:

"He's the chief hatchet man for Eddie Jones."

Edward N. Jones, to whom Colgrove referred, is the former state WPA administrator now publicity director for the Kennedy campaign committee. Colgrove was talking particularly about Erie county although WPA Area 12 embraces six counties in all.

"That's an awful hot spot," he said of his home county. "These people just announce openly 'We're Kennedy or lose your jobs.' I think we'll carry the county but tremendous pressure is being brought against Roosevelt people."

Colgrove is backing the gerrymandering Democratic Earle-Jones slate.

motor-mounted heavy calibre machine guns, 200 motor truck units carrying field searchlights and wireless apparatus and detachments of red-capped, mounted Spahis from Libya.

Regiments of khaki-clad Italian colonial forces followed, including detachments of camel-mounted Mendiari troops attired in white, flowing robes. The sight of these men panned Hitler's colony-hungry eyes wide open.

Huge Crowd Of Spectators

The parade started promptly at 9:50 a. m. and moved with machine-like precision along Rome's gala Street of Empire, which was lined 30-deep with cheering Roman spectators.

This military spectacle followed the gigantic naval sham battle witnessed by Hitler, with the king emperor and 11 Duce, yesterday off Naples. It was designed as an added proof that the Rome-Berlin axis was plenty to back it up at this end, but that Mussolini, in turn, is not compelled to lean on Hitler for any lack of strength in his own military.

The Fuehrer arrived here by train from Naples early this morning. After witnessing a performance of the "Aida" at Naples, Hitler and the king-emperor drove to their special trains, once again cheered by the apparently tireless Neapolitan crowds.

Hitler spent the night aboard his train, which was drawn up at a secret siding for hours under a heavy guard before returning to Rome.

Offers Open Alliance

As exclusively revealed by International News Service immediately after his arrival here, Hitler lost no time in offering to Mussolini the idea of an open alliance. He cited alleged Soviet aid to Spain and Bolshevist encroachment elsewhere in Europe and told Il Duce that public announcement of the entente would serve to stifle further Russian ambitions.

Il Duce then told the Fuehrer that such a step might wreck the chances of an Italo-French agreement, considered by Mussolini as a requisite to European appeasement, and might even serve to estrange Great Britain.

Mussolini is in the peculiar position of being determined to retain the newly-won Anglo-Italian friendship, overcome his long-standing differences with France and at the same time hold on to his tie up with military powerful Germany.

By verbal reiteration of the military agreement inherent and implicit in the Rome-Berlin accords Mussolini hopes to be able to satisfy the Fuehrer without upsetting the delicate balance of Italian relations with the rest of Europe.

Bride was the pastime afterwards, with prizes going to Mrs. Emmett Dakon, Mrs. Henry Slate and Mrs. Edward P. Hile. The latter also captured the "gallagher" which was carried off in a new fashion.

Capping the festivities, was the presentation of a beautiful gift to Mrs. Slate, in behalf of the J. F. F. members. She responded graciously.

Tau Delta Annual Mother's Daughters Banquet At Church

Outstanding in every way was the annual banquet for mothers and daughters, given in the Epworth M. E. church Thursday evening, by the Tau Delta class. Mrs. D. T. McCarty led the devotional period, and the occasion was attended by a group numbering eighty and upwards.

The banquet tables were decorated in pastel tones, with miniature May poles, the streamers leading out to the various places, which were marked with midget dolls, attached to the ends. At the mothers' places were found individual shoulder corsages.

Most touching were the toasts given by Sara Owens to "Our Mothers," and by Mrs. J. F. Rantz to "Our Daughters."

After partaking of a delicious menu, a program featured, with the following taking part: Mrs. Charles Matthews opened with a selected literary reading and following Mrs. John Riley gave a piano solo. A play that brought many laughs, was presented by a group of six women, as the next contribution. It was entitled "A Day Off at the Old Ladies Home," with character parts being taken by Mrs. Louise Burgo, Pauline Parker, Mrs. Diane Lott, Mrs. Theolina Barber, Mrs. Hazel Brown, and Mrs. Geneva Walker. Next, Mrs. Carlisle Kamerer and Miss LaVina McCarty gave a piano duet and Mrs. Chester Reynolds pleased with a vocal selection.

Launching a new idea for such gatherings, the entire assemblage joined in a "comical hat parade" that enlivened the hours.

Included in the group of special guests who shared festivities were Miss Mary Shaffer of Brilliant, O., a former member of the class; Mrs. Florence Rogers of Steubenville, O.; Mrs. James Fitzgerald of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Edna Mae Kerr of Beaver Falls, Pa.; Mrs. T. C. Depp of Big Run, near DuBois, and Mrs. Davis of Bessemer.

In addition to Miss Mary Catherine Jackson, program chairman, having aided to make the evening such an overwhelming success, Miss Mildred Lusk and Mrs. Hazel Browning, decorating chairman and menu chairman respectively, are also to be congratulated for the assistance they and their committees gave in planning the evening.

Silver Tea Lovely Affair At Home Of Mrs. Joel McKee

Approximately 100 guests enjoyed the lovely Silver Tea given by the Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church in the home of Mrs. Joel S. McKee, Winter avenue, on Thursday afternoon.

Hauschild, second soprano; Mrs. James Rugh and Mrs. Paul Friend, alto; with Mary Louise Kirkpatrick accompanist. Their numbers were a group of folk songs of various countries suggestive of the spring and summer seasons, including "The First Primrose," "Spanish Sonnet," "English Gardens" and "Summer is a Comin'."

EAST SIDE GARDEN CLUB TOURS POTTERY

Most interesting as well as educational, was the pilgrimage to the nationally known Shenando Pottery of this city to the women members of the East Side Garden Club, who assembled at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday afternoon, leaving there in a caravan for the Pottery.

Upon their arrival there, a capable guide directed them to the various parts of the plant, explaining in detail, "The Making of China."

They were taken step by step, to the rooms where the dishes are fired, modeled from soft clay, on the many other parts of the building where they watched the process of polishing, glazing, decorating, inspecting, etc.

Even though the day was an exceedingly warm one, the trip was well worth every minute spent there.

The next regular assemblage of East Side Garden Club members, will be with Mrs. Paul Allen on West Washington street, on June 8.

B. T. W. Club

Henrietta Bishop received the B. T. W. club at her home on Cunningham avenue Thursday evening. Bridge occupied the attention of the evening with Mrs. James McIntosh and Mrs. Glenn Izzy receiving prizes.

The next hostess will be Frances Gibson, Cunningham avenue, on Tuesday evening, May 17.

Ritz Club

Mrs. James Barlette, Robinson street, entertained members of the Ritz club at her home on Thursday evening. Following a business period, cards formed the diversion and prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Furrow and Mrs. Anthony Panella. A lunch was served at the close of the evening.

In two weeks, Mrs. James Bondvengo, Glass street, will be hostess to the club.

FATALLY FOOLISH ECONOMY

THE special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who was shot while attempting to arrest a suspected bank robber in Illinois, was the twelfth G-man to be killed in the line of duty. According to an F. B. I. official, the recent reduction in the force under the excuse of economy was partly responsible for the death of this courageous detective, since ordinarily four men would have been assigned to the case.

This costly piece of cheeseparing, a matter of a couple of hundred thousand dollars which would never be missed by an Administration that is spending billions with a lavish hand, has not come in for the criticism it deserves.

As vigilant combatants of organized crime the G-men, with their limited numbers and resources, have made a remarkable record. There could be no sounder investment for the public safety than the strengthening of this admirable force. Certainly it is the height of folly to permit a spirit of niggardiness to weaken its efficiency at a time when criminals were more active and daring.

BENEFITS OF RESEARCH

America's progress is nowhere more apparent than in the long list of beneficial improvements created through industrial research. Practically every large concern maintains a staff of experts engaged in productive experimentation. Under the magic wands of these fascinated scientists, gasoline has been extracted from sand, sugar has been converted into a building material, artificial wool has been made from cheese, and automobile steering wheels have emerged from the lowly soy bean.

What the future holds forth may be a matter of speculation. But one thing is certain: Industrial research will continue to elevate the American standard of living through ever more efficient utilization of natural resources.

EX-KING WITHOUT A COUNTRY

"Free as a king." The phrase hasn't been used in a serious sense for a long time now.

How about "Free as an ex-king?" That must have seemed a good, realistic figure of speech to the Duke of Windsor at the beginning of 1937. Does it mean anything? Well, yes and no. Yes, a while ago. No, now.

The Duke of Windsor, for years royal's No. 1 globe-trotter, is forced to travel more and more by armchair and book. It seems a man can't continue anybody he isn't king any more.

Windsor lived in Austria for a while. But now such a thing might be interpreted as a friendly British gesture toward Nazism. He can't go to Italy for similar reasons, and of course Spain just now is out of the question. Also, you learn, there are "a number of countries in Central and Eastern Europe" where the political situation just doesn't quite permit his presence. Soviet Russia might as well not exist for him.

So France must continue to be his European stamping ground, at least for a while. Excepting, of course, Paris, for a few days this summer when the King and Queen will be there.

WHY PAY BONUSES TO CONGRESSMEN?

In proposing that traveling allowances be restricted hereafter to members actually making official journeys to and from the national capital, the Senate Appropriations Committee seemed to be guilty of Senatorial discourtesy, cruelty to Congressmen or some other technical parliamentary offense. Their colleagues showed that they considered this a highly revolutionary idea when they promptly proceeded to vote it down.

Long before the favored farmers were paid for not raising crops, Senators and Representatives were being "recompensed" for trips they never took.

If traveling allowances are to continue they should be restricted to the actual cost, which has been officially estimated at not more than fifty cents a mile, including Pullman accommodations.

The figure of 20 cents a mile was fixed 72 years ago. There is no reason for giving Congressmen on cash bonuses three times as large as their traveling expenses. Delegates from Alaska and Hawaii and members from the Pacific Coast would be deprived of a specially fat pick-up in addition to their $10,000 a year. The estimated saving of $183,000 a session sounds like small change. But taxpayers nowadays would welcome even a few more pennies to rattle in their pockets—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A FAVORED LAND

As a publicist, James H. R. Cromwell, husband of the former Doris Duke, tobacco heiress, has not always been given serious and respectful attention. He is a young man of individual and sometimes unconventional views on public questions and, having a yearning for political life, has been inclined to give his conclusions wide publicity. The reaction has not always been favorable and friendly.

With respect to his most recent utterance, made upon his return to the United States from a two-months' tour of Europe, however, there can be no possible conflict. "My impression is that, despite all our troubles here, there is not a nation in Europe that would not change places with us right now," said Mr. Cromwell, who is no doubt an observant and a discerning traveler.

No one who has traveled in Europe lately and no one who has read of European developments will question the accuracy of this conclusion. Our streets do not resound with the tramp of marching feet and the rattle of cannons. We are virtually free from the danger of war.

And, in all humility—for previous have been our follies and our failures—we must give thanks that we live under a democratic form of government.

In spite of the recession, in spite of an occasional petty tyrant in government, we have indeed a favored land. And anyone who doubts that this is the case would gain in enlightenment through a month or two in Europe.

With every political utterance these days it becomes increasingly evident that 1940 is not far away.

Mr. Dionne, presumptuous chap, wants more authority over his children, entirely ignoring the fact that he is nothing more than their father.

Almost with every breath we breathe a Chinaman is born, a thought which must be discouraging to Japan, busily engaged in its task of Chinese extermination.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TOYS FOR TODDLERS

The toddler need not be rich in order to have toys. He can have them in the poorest home; they are all around him.

He likes to fill and empty and carry things about in a small basket, box, pan or pail. The pans and lids of the kitchen are also precious toys for the baby. The toddler likes to pull about cardboard boxes by a gentle string; to push tiny objects round on the floor through a slit in the top of an empty coffee can. Pins are safer there than in his stomach.

Any dad can make big blocks out of inexpensive wood, say, two by four, or four by four. Some of these blocks should be two or four times as long as wide, even longer. Some small boards or blocks can have a hook in the end of one and an eye in the end of another for the child to fasten together in a train and be pulled with a string. Well, if the lower front (dies) are smoothed off, in order to slide better. Save the wrapping cord for him and he will want to fasten all sorts of things together crudely.

Big spoons or butter molds can be cut in a table shop for wheels on a big board or box. This box on wheels or castors may be good to keep his smaller playthings in. Out of such materials an older child can make a crude wagon for the toddler.

When food arrives in containers let the toddler move it around, and place it in all sorts of piles. Carefully open these food containers so the lot can have them afterwards. Also be sure to lead through magazines and look at the pictures. As soon as he can handle snub-nosed scissors he can cut out pictures from old magazines and paste them into another old magazine, or in a cheap scrap book. You can make the paste from flour and water. Also library paste is inexpensive.

Kindergarten Crayons Safe. A lead pencil is dangerous, but the lot can have kindergarten crayons—first black ones and later colored ones, for a few cents. Save the wrapping paper for him to draw and scribble on. The back of wall paper remnants is also excellent. With a strong spoon he can have fun scratching in the earth or sand in the back yard. Out of doors, or standing on a strong box by the kitchen sink, he can pour water into milk bottles. With a ten-cent box of checker men or dominoes he can have a deal of fun. Encourage him to fill them into the box. He may like to build with them and put them in rows.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

HOW MUCH DID WE SEE?

"LET ME show you," said the Great Painter, "all the lovely colors of this world. You know them already? You have seen them in a rainbow? Yes, but can you find them down here on earth—here where men think that the trunk of a tree is merely brown, the sky a standard blue, a sunset merely flaming reds and purples? Let me show you the colors in everything!"

You look at a painting, perhaps, and say: "How absurd! There are no such colors, the painter must have a wild imagination. But the painter's imagination is no wilder than yours. But he sees what is there. He looks at the shadow on the hills at dusk and sees the blacks and grays that you see, but he sees hidden beneath them or laid over them, soft greens, gentle blues, a mist of red and orange light between you and those summer slopes.

"If you look you will find beauty in the shadows, my friend. You may not know as much as Rembrandt or Van Gogh or Cezanne or Van Gogh could see because they were great and had something few of us possess—but you may see, if you will search for it, a common loveliness all around you, where there is reflection or there is shadow."

"Do you think," asks the Great Teacher, "that all men are merely black or white? Do you believe they are wholly good or bad? Are you sure that they are only what they seem to you to be?"

"Then let me show how the weak are often strong, how the 'ignorant' sometimes have wisdom that is rooted deeper than oaks. I can show you men who think they are bad and are really good. I will show you 'hard-boiled business men' who are kind of heart—and perhaps I may find you an arrogant fellow who is as modest as a little boy with."

"I can reveal to you under the cloak of the shadows this world has cast over men, hidden beneath the blacks and whites of their pretense, lovely hints of all the gentler, stronger virtues. And as you see these colors come alive before you, as you see men in this softer light, you will wonder why you never saw them thus before. And the cruelest and the gruff and the stupid children will deceive you no more."

HINTS and DINTS

Sun sets tonight 6:59. Sun rises tomorrow 4:54.

One question we have never been able to have answered and that is how can a producer get more money and the consumer get what he lives at less prices?

We have noticed trucks standing for hours on streets with parking meters on them and no nicker is paid. Trucks are supposed to stay only long enough to load and unload. Some cars with signs on them also stand for long times in the road. May be those who drive the vehicles are loading up in some places nearby.

The trouble with thinking twice before one speaks is that by the time you manage to get it out the world is talking about something else.

Win, lose or draw, three cheers for China. It's a proud distinction to be the only country that isn't afraid of the Japs.

The rich don't have everything. There are millionaires in America who never heard a mocking bird singing on a moonlight night in Spring.

People in these radio spelling contests are smart. It takes brains to guess the correct spelling of a word nobody ever heard before.

In England it takes a presentation at court to make a girl feel equal to any lady in America. It takes only a new frock, slippers, and hat.

We like the way our county detective is going after law breakers. So far, he is doing the best job done for many years. All people who love or enforce the law and fixing crooks should be behind him—and from what we hear they are.

It is not legal for a city to control its parking space and charging for it, how about the birds who park their cars all day on the main streets in front of business houses? Wonder what the people think about parking meters who have cars parked in front of their places on all streets outside the parking zones?

The remarkable thing about proud people is their ability to get so much self-satisfaction out of such a small quantity of material.

One shouldn't interfere with the driver. But it's all right to say "Stop," if it doesn't refer to his driving.

The chief fault of intelligence tests is that the dumbest can make up a list of questions to make the smartest look foolish.

The World At A Glance

Conservatives Are Wondering
 La Follette May Draw Strength
 Other Liberals Are Being Watched

By LESLIE EICHEL,
 Central Press Columnist

MUCH OF the glee of the conservative Republicans and Democrats, over the La Follette-liberal break-away from President Roosevelt, is being tempered to a cooler heat.

Governor Philip F. La Follette, who has taken the role of the titular leader of the National Progressive movement, is moving "too rapidly" in territory that is needed by conservatives to win. The mid-western farm states are "musts" for Republicans. If, now, Governor Phil and his brother, Senator Robert M. La Follette, should move on into Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania, where industrial workers are dissatisfied and well organized, the Republican cause is killed not only before it has laid the golden egg, but before it has been entirely hatched.

Nor are the La Follettes the only ones to be watched. Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York has been coveting in the southwest, where he lived as a boy, and his cowboy stunts are said to have enticed the natives—having been more native than anything seen thereabouts in a quarter of a century.

Then there is Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota, classified as a Republican, but who is held in holy terror by orthodox Republican leaders.

And also, there is Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan, classified as a Democrat, but considered no less than a Socialist by some southern Democrats, and whose very name is anathema to Wall Street. Governor Murphy has a liberal following that extends far beyond Michigan.

There is an extremely dark horse in Mayor Harold H. Burton of Cleveland, a nominal Republican, but who got into office by kicking both the Republican and Democratic machines twice.

The "trouble" is, of course, that there are New Deal Republicans as well as Democrats, and it is a wise head that knows what will come out of the race these days.

President Roosevelt may have the last laugh—as he goes out of office—(Continued On Page Seven)

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

THE PROOF READER

All proof readers, whether for newspapers, book publishers or printers of any kind are expected to be more intelligent than the Editors or writers furnishing the copy for the printers. They have to catch errors in English—errors in chronology, errors concerning dates and most of all, errors involving libel suits. I remember one of the old New York Herald, whose knowledge was encyclopedic and whose English was a Professor Emeritus of English Literature.

Public speakers may make many mistakes, sometimes through ignorance and sometimes because they are trying to speak extemporaneously, when both names and dates escape them.

Fellow members, news correspondents, and visitors in the House of Representatives were amused, one day recently, to hear Congressman Maury Maverick of Texas refer to "David's coat of many colors" in a liberal—Mr. Marquis Childs, whose speech when the Congressional Record appeared, it had been changed to "Joseph's coat of many colors."

The proof reader had caught the error. After considerable "razing," Mr. Maverick interviewed the proof reader and found such errors to be quite common in the speeches of members of Congress.

Two such "breaks" occurred within the last few weeks. One Congressman related the story of Hobson's slinking of the Mermaid in Manila Bay. Another had occasion to make reference to "Banquet's ghost." When the Congressional Record appeared, Hobson's exploit had been moved back to Santiago Bay, Cuba, where it belonged, and "Banquet's ghost" became "Banquet's ghost" as per Shakespeare.

The only time this country got along well was when people had no work. People in those days were not specialists, and did not insist on their pay and certain hours. Farmers are still doing that kind of work and if they ever quit, it will be good bye to a lot of birds.

Contrary to common belief a dash of perfumery is a long way from popularity.

The Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright, 1934)

He Can't Do The Work

WASHINGTON, May 6. THE fact that three times in the past two weeks Mr. Justice Hugo Black has again been the lone dissenter from opinions of the Supreme Court, of which he is a member, accentuates a situation which is causing apprehension of a new sort about its future.

FOR a good many months last year there was real fear that in his resentment at being thwarted by judicial decisions, the President might succeed in destroying the independence of the court and making it wholly submissive to the Executive will and whim. Now, concern is felt lest subsequent Presidential appointments of similarly unqualified men may so diminish the efficiency of the court as to make true the contention of Mr. Roosevelt, used to defend his court-packing effort—and entirely unfounded at the time—that it was unable to keep up its work.

THAT is not true today, but it can easily be made true within the next three years if Mr. Roosevelt has—and he is extremely likely to have—at least two, possibly three, more justices to name. Should he select justices like Mr. Reed, there would be no cause for worry; but should he name, for example, Senator Sherman Minton, of Indiana, there might be very real cause. Mr. Minton's name occurs because at the time Mr. Black was named he also was considered because he is an intimate of Mr. Black's and an adherent of his extreme political views; because, too, his disposition is to applaud whatever Mr. Roosevelt says and does; in brief, because he is of the Black type. And the outstanding fact about Mr. Black is that he not only is not pulling any of the strings of the Supreme Court, but has added to the already heavy routine burdens of his colleagues.

THIS has nothing whatever to do with Mr. Black's political opinions or convictions. It is in no way related to his former Ku Klux affiliation. It is, in fact, a matter of his dissent from the majority fifteen times in seven months certainly establishes an extraordinary record. The "acute discomfort and embarrassment" which Mr. Black is causing his colleagues, "liberal" and "conservative" alike, comes not from these things but "has grown out of a lack of legal knowledge and experience, and training that have led him into blunders which have shocked his colleagues on the highest court."

THESE quoted words come not from a critic of the President, nor from a reactionary, a Tory or even a conservative. On the contrary, they come from a strong friend of the President; an able and sincere young New Dealer and a recognized article in Harper's Magazine makes a convincing case against Mr. Black and an overpowering argument against the appointment of other Black types. It is quite clear that Mr. Childs reflects the majority of the "liberal" colleagues of Mr. Black as well as those of the conservative trend and that his inspiration has come from the former, not the latter. It is made plain that no one on the court cares about Mr. Black's personal or political views so long as he does his work. The complaint is that he not only does not do his work but can't.

"HE HAS been unable," says Mr. Childs, "to carry his share of the heavy burden that falls on the shoulders of his fellow-justices forsee that he will be able to carry it within any measurable time." The real points of all this is that Mr. Black has carried his Senatorial, not judicial, attitude.

Preparing For Park Season

Cascade Is Being Put In Condition For Busy
Summer Program

Work is progressing well on Cascade Park in anticipation of the coming season.

Flower beds are being spaced up, and gotten ready to put in flower plants from the greenhouses, also to sow flower seeds.

These greenhouses furnish some flower plants for various beauty spots in the city, and the municipal golf course, which include Cannas, Dahlias, Marigolds, Zinnias, etc.

The Grove will be ready for public use on the fifteen of the month. The kitchen will be ready, and gas will be turned on.

Several outings have been booked for this month. Recently about five hundred children from Byrns school in New Castle Borough, held a picnic at the park. Hundreds of children have already this season taken advantage of the park, bring their lunches and stay most of the day romping and otherwise enjoying themselves. In safety.

Concessionaires are on the ground getting their concessions ready for the opening on May 28. Mr. Eckert is making good progress with the yacht which he expects to have ready for playing on the Lake on opening day. The permit has been issued for draining the lake, and arrangements are being made to transport the fish to some other convenient place, while the draining is being done.

The building of the rest rooms has been held up temporarily, possibly until fall. Superintendent C. C. Condit states that the city is contemplating putting in a general project for Cascade Park, which will take care of finishing the rest rooms building new shelters, resurfacing the driveways and walkways, General necessary repair work on all buildings, and repainting will be done in the fall. Replanting of new trees will also be done, where dead trees are being taken out.

AROUND CITY HALL

It is most gratifying to the entire city to know that contagion here is decreasing. For a time it appeared as though the city might face more than a mild epidemic of scarlet fever. However, through the city health physician, Dr. W. L. Steen, co-operative measures were adopted and scarlet fever and other communicable maladies have shown a drop recently.

Mother Baker At Clifton Flats On Saturday Evening

Mrs. John Baker of Clifton Flats Mission will be the speaker Saturday evening; the Gospel Mission when an appropriate Mother's Day service is planned. Mrs. Baker, generally known as Mother Baker, and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Garver, will sing several songs on "Mother." Other special musical numbers will also be given.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—A local shoe store is considering a change in its advertising slogan. The merchant had been sponsoring a radio series of advertisements built around the slogan "Crime Does Not Pay!" A number of circulars were left on the counter for patrons. Opening his place of business for the day, the merchant found one of the circulars inscribed by a burglar: "It paid us." Twelve pairs of shoes were missing.

FOREST FIRES REDUCED

(International News Service)
WINCHESTER, Ky.,—Fires in the Cumberland National Forest were reduced from 483 in 1936 to 179 in 1937. R. P. Hemingway, supervisor of the U. S. Forest Service in this district, reported. Hemingway attributed the decline in blazes to cooperation of the public, despite the fact smokers were blamed for the largest number—68. The supervisor said Forest Service protected 853,273 acres of land, 368,555 acres of which are government-owned, during 1937.

County School Day Plans Being Made

Expect 1,600 School Children From District To Attend Coming Public Event

According to the committee in charge of arrangements for the coming County School Day celebration and picnic on May 20, at Idora Park, Youngstown, O., they are making preparations for 1,600 students to attend.

All of the schools in the county are co-operating and expect to send large delegations to the event. A special train is being run from the P. & L. E. East Side station, leaving New Castle at 9:10 o'clock, May 20. The train will leave Youngstown at 5 o'clock that evening.

A feature of the day's program will be a baseball tournament. A team composed of the men's faculty of the county schools will play a team of senior boys in the graduating classes of the schools. The winning team in this tournament will play the principals of the various schools.

Sports, a parade, free dancing in afternoon, and free swimming are being provided for the local students. Those on the committee include: Jay G. Randolph, of Union High school, chairman; Roy F. Conroy, assistant county superintendent; Glenn Johnson, Shenango High school; P. L. Varman, West Pittsburg school; and Mrs. Rita Miller, of Hillsville.

A PROFESSOR SPEAKS

Politicians are used to attacks by other politicians. In fact they shed such attacks as ducks shed water. But when a professor attacks, that is a different matter.

A speech made by Prof. Charles E. Merriam, of the University of Chicago, before the convention of the National League of Women Voters in St. Louis, has aroused the anti-Rooseveltians. Professor Merriam has been a crusader for good government for many years. And he was one of the experts on government who drew up the Brownlow report, basis for President Roosevelt's reorganization bill.

Here are excerpts from Professor Merriam's speech which the anti-Rooseveltians did not like: Professor Merriam predicted the ultimate adoption of this or a similar measure.

He predicted the end of the spoils system.

Of the bill killed in the house of representatives, he said:

"The principles of the reorganization were sound and good, and in the end they will prevail. They were blocked partly by the misun-

WPA Crew Works In Library Here

Six Girls Re-Bind Average Of 36 Books Daily In Library Work Rooms

Exceptionally fine work is being done daily by six members of the local WPA book crew. These girls are employed at the new public library building, and re-bind and mend books.

A quota of six books per worker per day, has been set for this work, and therefore an average of 36 books per day are treated by this crew.

In their work they completely tear apart the book, mend torn pages, make new backs, letter the backs, and then rebind them within the new covers. When the completed book leaves the library work shop and is placed on the shelves for circulation again, it is as good as when it left the print shop originally, as far as future service is concerned.

These girls working on this project include: Nadene Connor, Mary Hogue, Louise Corio, Ethel Harrington, Mary Rennie, and Dorothy Kinkela.

A complete workshop for the book crew is provided in one of the two start work rooms in the basement of the library building. This room is light and airy, and on hot summer days it remains very cool. It is an ideal location for this work which in itself is rather tedious.

Eleven Recovery Aids Are Proposed For U. S. By Hoover

Suggestions Are Given To Nation

Made During Address To Oklahoma Republican State Convention

NEW DEAL POLICIES STRONGLY ASSAILED

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 6.—Former President Herbert Hoover today left the State Republican convention here with eleven demands on the national government to save this country from the "dangerous road to dictatorship."

Hoover asked the government: (1) Reestablish confidence; (2) restore common and intellectual morals in government; (3) abandon economy of scarcity; (4) stop pump-priming; (5) revise taxes; (6) decentralize relief and save one-third; (7) balance the budget; (8) stop credit inflation juggling; (9) establish a 25-man non-political federal reserve board; (10) equalize employer rights before the national labor board; (11) eliminate class hat.

Already, he said, "it would startle the people to have a detailed list of the powers over their daily life they have surrendered to the president and his bureaucracy."

None of the European nations, he said, started out to surrender itself to a dictator.

End Of Dangerous Road

"In variable doses," he continued, "they undertook credit and currency manipulation, price fixing, pump-priming and spending with huge deficits and high taxes."

"At the end of this dangerous road hunger came to their cities with violent labor conflict and final despair. Then they surrendered every liberty to some man or group of men who promised economic security, moral regeneration, discipline and hope."

Hoover suggested the government: (1) Reestablish confidence; (2) restore common and intellectual morals in government; (3) abandon economy of scarcity; (4) stop pump-priming; (5) revise taxes; (6) decentralize relief and save one-third; (7) balance the budget; (8) stop credit inflation juggling; (9) establish a 25-man non-political federal reserve board; (10) equalize employer rights before the national labor board; (11) eliminate class hat.

Locomotive Plunges Into Arkansas River In Colorado

(BULLETIN)

CANON CITY, Colo., May 6.—A locomotive pulling an eastbound Denver and Rio Grande Western railroad passenger train plunged into the Arkansas river seven miles west of here today when a rock slide plunged down the sheer walls of the Royal Gorge.

William O'Connor, engineer, and Charles Hamann, fireman, both of Pueblo, Colo., were trapped in the overturned locomotive and scalded by escaping steam.

The cars remained on the rails, and no passengers were injured.

Doctors Describe Practice Abroad

Speakers Tell Medical Group Professional Customs In Four Lands

Medical practices in four foreign countries were described to members of the Lawrence County Medical society, gathered in The Castleton for their May meeting last night, by New Castle physicians who have recently studied or practiced abroad.

Last night's program of the medical group was its last until next September. The society always discontinues its monthly sessions during the vacation months.

Speakers who last night spoke of medical practices peculiar to the four foreign lands were Dr. David Perry, who spoke of practice in Austria; Dr. O. G. Taylor, an Energy doctor who for 19 years served the Methodist church as a medical missionary in India, who related his experiences; Dr. John R. Palazzo, who spoke of practice in Italy; and Dr. James D. Crawford, who spoke on the practice of obstetrics in Ireland. The doctors also heard a talk by Dr. Elizabeth McLaughrey, head of the Overlook sanatorium at New Wilmington, on "Mental Hygiene."

Dr. John Foster acted as chairman of the program and presided as questions were asked of the speakers.

Reporting to the society last night was its special committee handling a county-wide survey of medical needs. Dr. John Woods is chairman of the group which reported last night that the county survey is "practically completed." Findings are to be made public.

Pennington To Face Hearing

Head Of Huntingdon Reformatory Faces Involuntary Manslaughter Charge

(International News Service) HUNTINGDON, Pa., May 6.—Commander John D. Pennington, superintendent of the state industrial school for boys today termed his arrest on an involuntary manslaughter charge "another political attempt to embarrass the administration at Harrisburg" as he prepared for a local magistrates hearing.

The charge was brought against Pennington last night in a warrant served by a state motor policeman, holding him responsible for the fatal gassing of a negro inmate, Daniel La Maur, last December. Pennington said he would demand a full hearing this morning.

Political Move

Pennington, pointing out that all during the investigation of the La-

Maur death no charges were filed, holding him responsible for the death.

"I. Newton Taylor, Republican county chairman, acted as the district attorney has taken in as his associate, W. B. Simpson, brother of Congressman Richard Simpson.

"This charge is only another political attempt to embarrass me and hope thereby to throw some mud at the administration in Harrisburg."

Salon Exhibition
To Open Monday

Last minute entries in the New Castle Camera club's salon exhibition added to the mounting number of prints, according to a report from Janice Bittner, member of the salon committee.

The salon, the first of its type to be held in this city, is being sponsored by the New Castle Camera

a most successful precedent for future exhibits.

Winning pictures will be announced when the salon is opened for public inspection, Monday morning, and first and second prizes have been donated by Jack Gerson and J.

P. Perelman.

"The public is invited to attend the salon, during the week from May 9 to 14, in the assembly room of the new public library. There is an outside entrance to this room, from the North street side of the building, so that it is not necessary to go through the library proper.
Everyone attending the exhibit will be asked to vote for the print he considers most outstanding, and the popular vote will be announced at the close of the salon."

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Mark 9:40—"For he that is not against us is for us."

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for May 8 is Mark 9:30-41. The Golden Text being Mark 9:40, "For he that is not against us is for us.")

WHAT IS it that is turning the world, not just the other side of the Atlantic and Pacific, but of our side as well, into a mad-house with hordes of men ready to spring at one another with worse than maniacal destructiveness? Is it not selfishness, either in the form of pride or greed?

Antidote To Selfishness
Where shall we find an antidote to this madness that is threatening civilization? Only in the spirit of Christ and of the cross, as Jesus taught it to his disciples, saying: "The Son of man is delivered up to the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he shall rise again." But they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him. Like folk who know they should consult a physician or surgeon, but fear to do so because they do not want to face the necessities of their case, so these disciples dreaded the disclosure of the stern necessity of the cross. It was not entirely clear to them, but it was clear enough that they feared to have it made any more clear.

Crosses Versus Crowns
The reason they dreaded the cross for their Master was that they were unwilling to share the cross themselves. Even as he was telling them of his cross and sufferings they were disputing among themselves as to which of them was to be the greatest. They preferred to angle for crowns rather than to dangle from crosses! Instead of entering into sympathy with their Master in the impending crisis of the cross they were figuring on how they could turn this crisis, whatever it was, to their own selfish advantage. So, to teach them the lesson they needed on unselfishness and humility, he said: "If any man would be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all." And he took a little child and set him in the midst of them; and taking him in his arms, he said unto them, Whosoever shall receive one of such little children in my name, receiveth me, and whosoever receiveth me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me."

Intolerance Rebuked
How self-centered their thoughts were, is shown in John's confession: "Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followed not us." But Jesus rebuked this effort of John's for a "closed shop" in religion, saying, "Forbid him not; for there is no man who shall do a mighty work in my name and be able quickly to speak evil of me. For he that is not against us is for us. For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink, because ye are Christ's, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward." Not "Do they follow us," but "Do they follow Christ?" is the test of religious workers. He must ever be the center of gravity in spiritual work. If he includes a worker, who are we to exclude whom he includes, even though that one be able to do no greater service than the giving of a cup of water for Jesus' sake?

DEFECTIVE WIRES CAUSE OF ALARM

City firemen were called to the building occupied by the Nobi Shoe store at 130 East Washington street at 3:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Defective wiring had resulted in the insulation burning off of electric wires on the second floor of the building. There was only small damage, resulting principally from the fact that the floor had to be torn up to get at the seat of the trouble.

Occupants of the building had smelled smoke earlier in the day and Chief A. P. McWain had investigated but could not locate the trouble, it was stated.

Charges Bower Spent Her Money

(International News Service) CHICAGO, May 6.—Sweetie Bower and the duchess went their separate ways today.

The love idyll of Richard J. Bower, 27, and Mrs. Vashli Deberry, 41, ended in court when she charged him with operating a confidence game. She said he spent her $6,000 and then married another woman.

Bower, who went to Slippery Rock Teachers college in Pennsylvania came west and met Mrs. Deberry in Cincinnati. He denied he refused to marry her, and said:

"Only last year I got a job as a bedding and linen salesman. But she said that wasn't enough and wouldn't have me."

Tender names for each other began to fall flat, after that, he said. The judge took the case under advisement.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(Material Gathered and Edited by Student Reporters)

NURSING PREPARATIONS

The Senior girls who plan to train for nursing as a profession must file a copy of their high school credits with the Pre-Professional Credentials Division, Harrisburg, Pa. This must be done soon after graduation.

For further arrangements the girls must get in touch with the hospital or pre-professional school they intend to enter and also get a blank for reporting their secondary school credits. The blanks are to be left at the Senior high school office before the close of school June 10.

MATHER TROPHY AWARDED

On Tuesday morning the second assembly group witnessed the Mather Trophy to the winning class in the recent inter-class track meet. Mr. Mather personally awarded the trophy to the plucky captain of the victorious Sophomore B's, David Greer. The Sophs were upset victors with the grand total of 42 1/2 points.

Ralph Gardner had charge of the program and spoke both in congratulation to the Sophomores and in consolation to the other classes of the school. All in all, the meet was quite successful, and produced several heretofore unnoticed prospects.

SENIOR B MEETING

The Senior B class of Ne-Ca-Hi held a short business meeting on Wednesday morning. President Glenn Gordon opened the meeting and introduced Samuel Davy who spoke on the sale of football schedules. Neil Young was named the general chairman of the sale. Discussion of a future class meeting closed the session.

LIBRARY HONORED

Our library was signally honored this week when it received a short, personal autobiography from Agnes Carr Vaughan, author of the new book, "Within the Walls".

Due to a dearth of material concerning Miss Vaughan's life, many students were forced to omit the biographical section of their book reports. To remedy this Miss Reba Sines, assistant librarian, wrote to Miss Vaughan requesting material on her life.

The answer was quite gratifying in the form of a letter. Miss Vaughan is now a professor of Greek at Smith, and has travelled extensively through Europe and Asia Minor. She is a distinguished member of the Women's club in Paris.

The letter is in the library ready for student use. It may be inspected at any time.

1938-9 BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

L. home games will be on Friday evenings, whereas the same were on Tuesdays in the 1937-8 schedule.

GIRL RESERVES
The Senior High Girl Reserves held their weekly meeting Monday which was in the form of a panel discussion. The main theme, "How to Be Popular," was introduced in a talk given by Esther Chill. Sub-topics were given as follows:

"How to Behave at a Movie"—Catherine Wilson.

"General Rules for Behavior"—Ruth Cartwright.

"How to Behave with a Boy When Alone"—Susan Flick.

"To Kiss or not to Kiss?"—Betty Rainey.

"Lines"—Helen Love and Edwina Raub.

"How to Behave at a Dance"—Mary Ellen Shanafelt.

"Behavior"—Helen Ormson.

"Good Up"—Betty Dilo.

The main theme of this discussion is a very popular question and ambition to everyone—especially high school girls. Through this program the girls learned many things of benefit, and at the same time they had a very interesting evening.

SPECIAL SPEECH CLASS

The newly organized speech class, under the supervision of Miss Elsie McGeorge, is an up and coming youngster. Since its birth two years ago, it has played a very important part in high school activities.

These people take part in chapters, contests, entertainments and for most anything when a talented speaker is needed.

The following pupils participated in the recent Forensic contest: Sam Day, William Horcan, Kay Francis and Patricia Blaine. Special recognition is due Patricia Blaine for her Shakespearean reading. Her selection was, "The Taming of the Shrew," in which she portrayed the characters of three persons—Kate, Petruchio and Baptista. Taking first in the county, first in the sectional, and fifth in the state was the climax to weeks of hard work.

Another activity of this class is entertainment at various organizations in New Castle. Most recent of these was at the Altira Home where Susan Flick and Anne Derr rendered a pleasing entertainment as follows:

"Susan Flick—"The Silent System," "The Vase."

"Anne Derr—"The Wisdom of King Solomon."

SENIOR B H-Y

The Senior B H-Y club held an important meeting on Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. Glenn Gordon, president, opened the meeting. The paramount item of business was the decision to have a picnic. It was definitely decided to hold a picnic at Stoughton's Beach, near Slippery Rock, some time early in the summer.

To be eligible for attendance it was made obligatory that each member must have his current dues paid in full.

TRACK TEAM SUFFERS SETBACK

The Ne-Ca-Hi track squad underwent its initial setback in as many starts when they journeyed to Warren last Tuesday and were defeated by the rather ignominious score of 85 to 28. However, New Castle's speedsters copied two firsts when Eddie Sawinsky, excellent in the broad jump event and Johnny Kulis ran away with the shot put. Despite the poor point score, the Castles definitely showed some "stiff" and are confident of doing better in future meets, and especially when they travel to the Pitt Stadium late in the season. It seems the Warren boys had just a little too much "class" this time.

SENATUS ROMANUS PICNIC

At Gaston Park on Tuesday afternoon following school hours the Senatus Romanus enjoyed a very delightful picnic in honor of the graduating seniors of the organization. The club turned out in large numbers and all helped to make the event one of the most pleasant yet enjoyed by the club.

Arrangements were under the general chairmanship of Marian Brown, with Neil Young, Irwin Masters and Marian Hildebrand providing worthy substitutes.

Since the event was honoring the seniors, those fortunate were admitted free of charge.

GOLFERS VICTORIOUS

The golf team's fine record was kept intact last Tuesday when the drivers emerged victorious over the Beaver Falls boys by an 11 to 4 count. The team has yet to suffer a defeat, while winning four straight matches. By dint of this fine showing the "Castles" find themselves at the top of the section 7 W. P. I. A. L. ladder, and with great hopes of staying there. Butler is the only team which at present offers New Castle any opposition, both because they have been defeated only by the home boys, and because both the next two games must be played abroad.

However, if your reporter's memory serves him correctly, Headland, Monsey and Company took over the Buttricks (and all others for that matter) by quite a large score the last time they met, and there's no reason why they shouldn't repeat in the event that New Castle wins its next two games it will have won the section 7 toga and for the first time in many moons it will enter the W. P. I. A. L. eliminations.

FALLS KILL MORE THAN AUTOS IN OHIO

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O.—More Ohioans, 1,533—died from falls last year than were killed in railroad, street car and automobile accidents combined, the state industrial commission found today. Auto accidents killed 638, railroad accidents 383 and street car mishaps 51.

SOFT DRINKS ARE STILL IN DEMAND

(International News Service)
CHICAGO—Americans have not deserted the thirst-quenchers of prohibition days.

There are 30,000,000 seven-ounce bottles of carbonated beverages consumed in the United States every 24 hours—one bottle for every four persons in the nation.

This sea of flavored fizz is the product of 10,000 bottling plants, and no less than 120,000 soda fountains do a daily business of $4,000,000 serving the business girl's lunch which is invariably built around a soft drink.

These statistics were revealed today by officials of the liquid carbonic company, one of the distributors of carbonic gas—the fizz in the soft drink.

More than 11 million women are gainfully employed in the United States.

DOG LOSES OUT IN BATTLE WITH SWAN

COLUMBUS, O.—Pete Huddy and some of his ilk for here on Ohio State university's Mirror lake a bird coz attempted to assault an inoffensive swan, almost succeeded until the swan by a succession of quick water maneuvers, exhausted the determined canine.

The dog, trained only to retrieve dead birds, yearned for a little life and he swam out to attack the swan. Evidently the swan flapped its wings in the dog's face and flew to shore. The dog headed back to land and the fool scurried back to the middle of the lake.

A little weary by this time, somewhat nettled and confused by the swan's vicious hissing, the English setter swam out to the center of the lake once more for a new offensive. But the bird literally swam rings around the bewildered hound. Finally in disgust, the setter paddled to shore, the loser.

One out of every five wage earners in the United States is a woman.

Gas in Stomach or Bloating No Longer Annoy This Lady

Tells how Vendol relieved indigestion, acid stomach, lump in throat, palpitation, belching up food and other troubles due to bad case of constipation.

MRS. CHARLES WORPECK

"I got almost unbelievable relief by taking Vendol after I had suffered many a day from troubles in my stomach," said Mrs. Charles Worpeck, a popular young matron, with a host of friends in this city. "Recently, it seemed most everything went wrong, and I began to suffer with indigestion that turned my food to gas and sometimes almost choked me with nervousness that cut my sleep down terribly, spots before my eyes and bad taste in my mouth and with pains that stretched across the small of my back."

"Because I had tried to many other medicines which failed to give the desired relief, it is not surprising that I was doubtful about Vendol helping me like everyone around here was saying it did for them."

"But in two weeks, this grand medicine entirely changed my mind. Now, after a few more weeks on it, my bowels are moving as they should, my digestion is equal to even the heaviest meal, nerves have quieted and let me sleep, the spots before my eyes and the bad taste have vanished and the pain across my back never bothers me any more. Vendol is the best medicine ever, and I want to recommend it to both old and young people who are troubled like I used to be. I am sure Vendol will help everyone who will give it a chance."

"If you need a good, safe, reliable medicine, get Vendol without delay from your nearest druggist. It is highly recommended here by New Castle Drug Co., 12 E. Washington St., and 24 N. Mill St. in Ellwood City by Schwartz's Pharmacy and Ellwood City, and in New Wilmington by Weaver's Cut Rate."

HERE, sir, is the bright particular star of the automotive year: a car to make you proud and happy—you can prove that anywhere on the highway these bright May days.

In it, you can know luxury in your travels and still not over-strain your budget!

Fact is, you feel like a million just sitting in this Buick!

And you know you're commanding the "tops" in power the first time you give its eager DYNAFLEX engine the gun!

At the wheel you feel the buoyant steadiness that is TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING's special gift to motoring—the firm, fleet roadability of a car that's beautifully poised in all its going.

There's no "hop" on this fast one. It doesn't "gallop" or bounce or pitch.

Its soft stout coiled steel springs let the wheels follow the road—rise to the swells, dip to the hollows—yet pass none of that lively up-and-down on to the body.

You travel level as a straightedge, thrill to turbine-smooth power that's quick as lightning—know a kind of travel-comfort that neither road nor weather mars. Yet what are the facts on costs?

This great straight-eight actually costs less than some sixes! Price almost any other car, and by the time you've added in the extra values included in Buick's figures, you've paid for the matchless performance only Buick can give you!

So don't sit idly wishing for a star! Reach up—get this one! We're ready to show you any day it costs less than you think.

"Better buy Buick!"

Harry L. McBride, post, Veterans Foreign Wars, and its auxiliary honored their mothers and the Gold Star Mothers of the city last evening at the annual Mother's Day banquet which took place in the Legion on Thursday evening.

The dedication was given by Rev. J. Miles Cottrell, following which George Christoph, past commander of the post, introduced T. John Syling as the toastmaster of the evening.

The principal address, "Mother Love," was given by John C. Syling, county superintendent of schools. Following this were given by Mrs. J. W. Miller, president of the V. F. W. auxiliary, Mrs. Hazel Cooper, senior vice president of the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, past president of the Service Star Legion, and Mrs. Evelyn Woods, representing the department of Pennsylvania of the V. F. W. auxiliary.

A glowing tribute to the beauty of mother love was also given by Rev. J. Miles Cottrell.

Other features for the Gold Star Mothers was a beautiful cake, decorated with gold roses and the word "mother" which was presented by Mrs. Elsie Fredericks, and a spray of gold tulips and lilies of the valley for each mother from Mrs. Ruth Tins.

Music during the evening was rendered by an orchestra led by Don Ponce.

Prosecution In Lottery Case About Through

U. S. Attorney John D. Ray, Ready To Rest Case Against Priest And Others

WITNESSES GIVE DAMAGING TESTIMONY

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, May 6.—With but a few minor witnesses yet to appear, United States Prosecutor John D. Ray today indicated he was almost ready to rest his case against Rev. James R. Cox, Pittsburgh pastor, and five other persons standing trial in connection with the "Garden of Eden" lottery case.

As the government side of the trial neared a conclusion, a Federal witness testified that Thomas A. Harkins, one of the promoters of the $25,000 contest, told Father Cox he would take care of the pay-off of prizes.

Fake Win Sheet
The government contends the promoters of the contest faked a win sheet last winter using the names of relatives and other persons unknown to the big awards when the total money collected fell short of their expectations. Specifically, the quintet was charged with operating a lottery and fraud.

Arthur G. Wicks, of Cleveland, one of the seven men who pleaded guilty earlier in the week, told the jury that Harkins assumed responsibility for paying off the winners last Christmas eve. Even at that date, Wicks said, the promoters knew they didn't have enough money to pay off $25,000 in prizes so before he left for Cleveland the next day he gave Harkins the names of six men which could be used as "winners." They later appeared on the win sheet, he said.

urged that the group wait until Judge Henry L. Eilenbogen returned from Washington so they might receive some legal advice on the case. Eilenbogen, it was testified, advised the money be held in escrow until a decision was handed down by the government.

Attorney Oliver K. Eaton, representing the Pittsburgh priest, put Wicks through a stiff grilling during his cross-examination.

The prosecution also called yesterday several more "winners" who said they were notified they had won awards but had never received them.

Noted Gunman Is Given Parole By Governor Earle

Albert Carelli, Member Of "Blue Bandanna Gang" Served 12 Years Of Term

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, May 6.—Albert Carelli, former member of the "Blue Bandanna" gang that terrorized the Pittsburgh area ten years ago, was paroled by Gov. George H. Earle today after serving 12 years of a 28 to 59-year prison term.

The governor's action was based upon a recommendation of the state board of pardons, which first recommended commutation of Carelli's sentence in 1934 and three months ago heard rearguments that led to the parole.

Carelli was sentenced October 21, 1926, to his lengthy term in Western State penitentiary on charges of robbery and burglary.

Eighteen Prisoners Are Given Pardons
Thirty-One Others Have Sentences Commuted By Governor George Earle

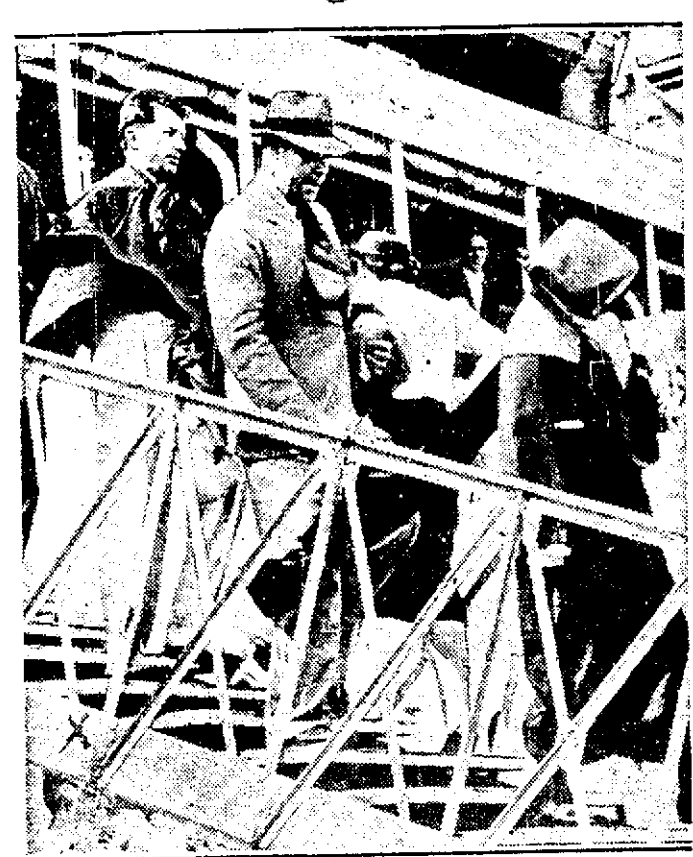

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, May 6.—Gov. George H. Earle today pardoned 18 former convicts and granted commutations of sentence to 31 others, upon recommendation of the state board of pardons.

At the same time the pardon board held five cases under advisement, continued 13 approved one parole, dismissed one application and refused 12 applications for clemency considered at the February and March board sessions.

Took On "Weight" Too Quickly

Coming down the gangplank of the Italian steamer Marco Polo are two smugglers (left and extreme right) attired as a friar and a nun, who were caught by Alexandria, Egypt, authorities attempting to bring ashore more than 100 pounds of opium and dope. They were searched when officials noticed they seemed to have put on weight while aboard the vessel. (Central Press)

Financing Plans Of Treasury Given

Morgenthau Urges Passage Of Bill Expanding Authority To Issue Bonds

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, May 6.—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today told the house ways and means committee that the treasury plans financing operations in June, September and December totalling $2,600,000,000.

Faced with the necessity of raising this money, Morgenthau urged passage of the Doughton bill which expands authority of the treasury to issue bonds instead of short term securities.

The treasury secretary emphasized that he did not seek to increase the present authority to issue obligations to expand the public debt to a total of $45,000,000,000. With the public debt now at $13,975,106, the treasury has a "working margin" of $31,024,894 under the present debt limit. The treasury, however, he said, wants the law amended so that it can have more freedom in choosing between issues of treasury bonds, certificates of indebtedness and other types of securities.

Future Farmers Entertain Dads

Annual Father And Son
Banquet Held By North
Beaver Chapter Friday Evening

REV. KUHN GIVES
PRINCIPAL TALK

With the present, the Father and Son Banquet of the North Beaver Chapter, Future Farmers of America, took place at the North Beaver Consolidated school Friday evening. Cecil Kenney, president of the chapter, served as toastmaster of the evening. A splendid meal was served by the girls of the Home Economics Department under the supervision of Miss Edyth Volkmeine.

E. C. Wiggins, county supervisor of Vocational Education, took flash-light pictures of the group, and pep singing was led by W. H. McCullough.

The auditorium of the school was beautifully decorated in blue and gold and spring flowers at the tables enhanced the beauty of the scene. Rev. Orville L. Kuhn, pastor of the Mahoning U. P. church was the principal speaker of the evening and gave an inspiring address. Remarks of interest were also given by Prof. F. Conway, assistant county superintendent of schools, and W. W. Bell, adviser of the chapter.

Rural leadership was the general theme of the evening, and the guests were welcomed by John Razzano. The invocation was delivered by Rev. Ray Woodburn.

J. D. McFate represented the sons, while the response from the fathers was given by W. P. Fox. W. H. McCullough, supervising principal, spoke for the school, and Sam Gibson for the school board. There was a harmonica solo by William Bright, and music by the Apple Polishers, McKim, Brady and Serjacki, and a trombone quartet composed of Fox, McCullough, Kenny and McKinley.

The officers of the chapter are: Cecil Kenney, president; John Razzano and Oscar Paden, vice presidents; W. W. Bell, adviser; Marvin Brady, secretary; Donald Fox, treasurer; and John D. McFate, reporter. Oscar Paden was general chairman. The food committee was: Kenneth Urey, William Bright and John Lusk, entertainment committee; John Razzano, John Clark and Ronald Gilkey, reception committee; Cecil Kenney, William Bright, Marvin Brady and Robert Brest. The success of the affair was due to the efforts of the committees, who worked hard on the preparation for the event, and all are looking forward to next year's event.

There are approximately 1,800,000 Italian-born persons living in the United States.

Mrs. Garner Speaks

Dog Quarantine In North Beaver

Township Clamps Down
After Mad Dog Scare;
Warn Dog Owners

A dog control quarantine today went into effect in North Beaver township as officials instigated a drive to prevent the spread of rabies. Constable W. Howard Gilmore and William H. Goehring, state dog law investigator from Beaver Falls, informed The News.

A citizens' petition sought immediate action as a result of a series of mad dog scares. Gilmore and Goehring said. The quarantine is township-wide.

Officials asked for co-operation in the quarantine enforcement and warned that "dogs running at large will be shot on sight by any citizen or officer."

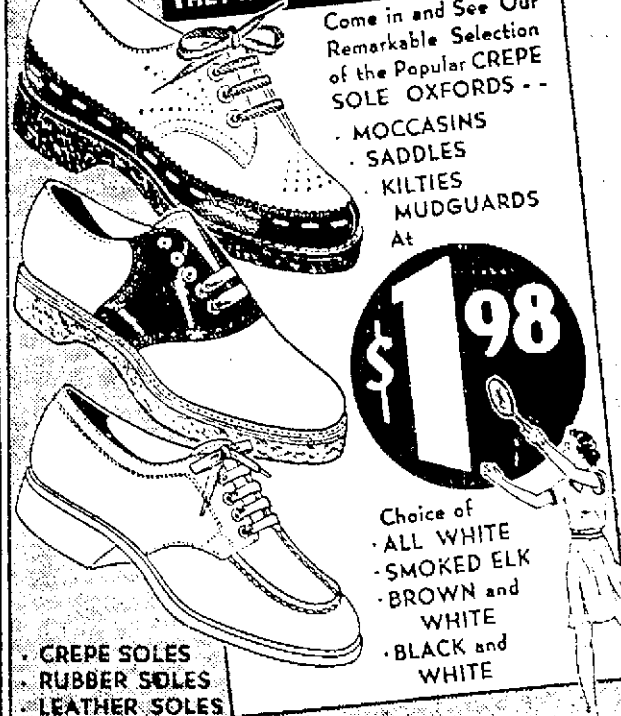

CROP ROTATION IS SUCCESSFUL

(International News Service)
MARYSVILLE, O.—Glen C. McIntire of nearby Irwin, has conceived a successful "crop rotation plan" featuring soy beans, corn, wheat and clover. The soy beans precede the wheat, harvesting soy beans and seeding wheat on the field, as happens when a rotation of corn, soy beans, wheat and clover is followed. McIntire believes his yields of corn following soy beans are as large as if the corn was planted immediately after the clover was plowed down. The soy beans on his farm are harvested with a combine, so only the seed is removed from the field.

Absorption of alcohol is effectively retarded by drinking heavy cream or by eating butter.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Phil La Follette Outranks Robert

Is Held Greater Political Genius Than Senator By Critics

MID-WEST IS GOING LIBERAL

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Bldg.
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist
WASHINGTON, May 6.—To resume—the La Follette movement? How consolidated is it? And how much more can it be consolidated? Gov. Philip F. La Follette is well-nigh impossibly dynamic, active and energetic.

The country has known him thus far only rather indirectly, through news dispatches from Madison, as the Badger State's youthful governor.

It knew his father, as a premier senator and "third party" presidential candidate—a statesman of the first water. He was historic. Agree with him or not, he was a bell-ringer.

PHIL VS. BOB
"Young Bob" La Follette inherited his father's senate seat. "Young Bob" has been an outstanding senator.
But "young Bob", while he has talent, hasn't "young Phil's" political genius.
The difference is that, whereas "Bob's" talent has been nationally displayed, "Phil's" genius has been corked up in Wisconsin.
Now "Phil" is breaking into the national limelight.

A JOINT BOLT
I'd wonder if "Bob" might not be a little bit jealous of "Phil." Seemingly not.
"Phil" and "Bob" were conspicuous Rooseveltian New Dealers. "Phil" has "bolted." "Bob" follows him.

It is a joint La Follette "bolt" evidently.
Senator Burton K. Wheeler ran vice presidentially with the elder La Follette in 1924. He should be pro-La Follette today. He seems so. He is anti-Rooseveltian New Deal, anyhow—as witness his position on the supreme court fight.

TREND TOWARD THEM?
Mid-western agriculture is manifesting anti-Roosevelt tendencies—that is, a hostility to repressed production.

Speaking for urbanites, Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York expresses himself in a friendly tone toward La Follette-ism.
The nub of it is this:
Liberalism appears to consider La Follette-ism as more sensible than Rooseveltism. And there are hints that conservatism thinks so also.

Bumper Crops Forecast In U. S. And Canada; May Mean Poor Prices

By ROGER W. BABSON

BABSON PARK, Mass., May 6.—The recession is now stretching out through the rural areas of America. Up until several months ago the better showing. Farm wages have eased off slightly since last summer but are as high as a year ago. Taxes, of course, are no lower. Hence, the profits of the American farmer have slumped badly in the last 12 months. Dairy farmers are the one exception. While their prices are lower than last summer, one major item in their production cost—feed—has fallen sharply.

Huge Wheat Crop. New the new farm season is under way. Acreages of some crops will be slightly under 1937 but wheat acreage will be close to a record. The government forecast of the winter wheat crop places it well above 700,000,000 bushels. This would be the third largest in history. The average of the past five years is 465,000,000 bushels. Even the so-called drought areas, particularly the Prairie Provinces of Canada, should produce the first real harvest in years. Moreover, we are going into the new crop season with huge carry-overs. The cotton surplus, for instance, is the largest on record and almost equals an average annual crop.

A new Agricultural Act was enacted by Congress last winter. Under its provisions much of the various 1938 crops will not be allowed to go to market. This means an outlay of millions of dollars by the Federal government. In cotton alone the cost could run as high as $600,000,000. This program may temporarily help farmers. But it may become a tremendous burden on the rest of the country. Furthermore, a big backwash of rural sentiment is rising against government control and its allotment plan. Farmers are talking of refusing "to sacrifice liberty for prosperity". They are rugged individualists and Secretary Wallace's new program may strike the price decline is still going on although the momentum is easing up. Sharpest drops have come in the quotations on grains, fruits, vegetables, meats, butter and cotton. Milk, eggs and poultry have made a a snag in rural resistance to "regimentation".

Gashopper Plague?

May farm forecasts, however, can easily turn into July boomerangs. This happened in '34 and '35 as June droughts withered the Great Plains. This year farmers are worried by the possibility of a grasshopper plague. Weather conditions have been ideal for these insects. Scientists and technical men are so fearful of this menace that they have already mapped out their plans to combat the "hoppers, should they strike. Those who saw the moving picture, "The Good Earth" have a realization of what a real grasshopper invasion means.

Drought, grasshoppers or some other event could change present forecasts radically. Smaller crops sold at higher prices would probably bring more farm income than bumper harvests at low prices. Big crops will certainly help those businesses—railroads, elevators, etc.—which handle the crops. But regardless of the size of the 1938 harvest, there should be improvement in some prices between now and fall as general business picks up. I doubt, however, if such an improvement would bring farm income up to the 1937 level. So farm prospects for the next few months are questionable. In fact, country retail sales are only now beginning to reflect the sharp drop in rural income which we have already experienced this year.

Don't Pity the Farmer.

The longer-term picture has not changed in recent months. The real answer to the American farm problem is better farming methods, greater diversification of crops, the revival of world trade, and the development of new industrial uses for farm products. Huge one-crop farms operated as big business aggravate the farm problem. Farming is a manner of living. It cannot be encouraged as a big business. Remember that the farmer enjoys many advantages that the city worker does not have. With world conditions as they are today, I feel that well-trained farmers who own small fertile units have the safest long-pull outlook of any class or group in America!

Levine Extends Reward Offer

Says He Is Completely In Dark As To What Happened To Son

(International News Service) NEW YORK, May 6.—Almost in tears at one point in the interview, Attorney Murray Levine, whose 12-year-old son, Peter, was kidnapped in New Rochelle on February 24 after he had emerged from school, on Thursday told newspapermen he is "completely in the dark" regarding what happened to his boy.

"No theory you get up is logical," said Levine. "Nobody could have had a motive for kidnapping him other than the obvious one—to get money. Why they should pick on me, why they should take my son—it's all very baffling."

Levine announced he is extending until June 15 his offer of $25,000 reward for information resulting in the return of the boy or $5,000 reward for information resulting in the recovery of his body. This offer, originally made on April 20, was to have expired next Tuesday.

Alcohol Tax Unit Seizes Sixteen Still In April

Huge Quantity Of Whiskey And Mash Also Taken By Enforcement Agents

Oliver J. Gettel, investigator in charge of the alcohol tax unit for the 25 counties of western Pennsylvania, has just released the monthly report for April, 1938, in which he shows the seizure of 16 stills, with a total capacity of 1150 gallons, which means that the average capacity of each still was approximately 70 gallons; 707 gallons of whiskey, 4805 gallons of mash and nine automobiles.

These seizures resulted in 29 cases being made and 38 persons being arrested.

Mr. Gettel stated that this is a slight increase in seizures over the previous month and feels that these results are due partly to the cooperation of persons who forwarded information regarding violations of the internal revenue laws in their neighborhoods.

Anyone having knowledge of the whereabouts of illicit stills or of automobiles carrying non-tax paid whiskey may forward such information to Mr. Gettel, 722 Federal building, Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Gettel also mentioned that such communications will be held in strict confidence and that it is not necessary for the writer to sign his name.

Police Collect $598.90 Here Last Month

City police court fines, forfeits and dance permits brought the city $598.90 during April, according to a report made by Mayor Charles E. McGrath to council recently.

Three hundred and fourteen persons were arrested of whom 150 represented violators of the parking ordinance.

Eighty-five persons were arrested for intoxication.

One was taken into custody for carrying concealed weapons and one person was nabbed for an attempted felony. Three speeders were caught by police.

The other arrests were for other minor infractions of the law.

Fighting Fox Is Favored In Kentucky Derby

Withdrawal Of Stagehand Makes Fox Favorite, Bull Lea Is Also Well Liked

TEN HORSES TO GO TO BARRIER

By DAVID J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6.—As this sedate citadel, steeped in the gracious dignity of the southern tradition, suddenly forgot its years this morning and began to nibble and caper and antic in throes of a sort of civic buck-and-wink with the incoming pre-dawn mob, ten horses—the fleet of the three-year-old division—waited in their stalls at Churchill Downs for the big moment, as horses will and do and must. Ten, though not eleven.

The competitive ghost of Stagehand, winter back favorite, has been recently buried at last, the interim being official, final and permanent. This was attended to last night by Trainer Earl Sande, who read the roll and out of ten horses' row's derby but next week's pre-kness as well. I think he acted in the nick of time in order to save some of his reported friends from themselves.

This was so low—for purposes of the derby—by that time that it lay supine and spraddled out, with legs knimbo.

Ten Will Start

The ten survivors almost certainly will go through the entry box at the Downs this morning, but only two of them seem to matter. Fighting Fox and Bull Lea. Perhaps three, including Dauber, well, maybe four including Lawrin. All right then, make it an even five and include Menow.

But Sande said last night that, if you don't make it six and include the other four horses, the Chief, you won't have the winner.

"People were wondering what might have happened if the derby trial had been a quarter mile longer," said Sande. "Nothing would have happened. Stagehand wouldn't have caught The Chief, if the race had been four miles."

In other words, this is still a horse race tomorrow, although they've had to cut in the decorum and change the window display a little over night. The change hasn't been great.

Fighting Fox Favored

Fighting Fox was co-favorite this week with Stagehand at 3-1 and is now the choice at 2-1. Bull Lea, getting the big western play now, is 5-2. Menow is, or should be around 5-2, and Lawrin and The Chief 6-1. They tell me Dauber is about 7, they isn't bad come on price for a horse that can run on anything up to ground glass and is the only mud runner in the race.

But somehow the Fox figures. He ran magnificently a week ago in the Wood Memorial. He shipped well. He gave a nice "work" here during the races two days ago. He seems to be all horse. But they say as much for Bull Lea, as for The Chief, he beat Lawrin Tuesday in a head finish in 1:35 4-5 and Sande says he'll go the extra quarter in and like a breeze.

Joe Di Maggio looks like best bargain in baseball and makes Col. Jake Ruppert of the N. Y. Yankees the best bargainer.

Yankees Start Climb Upward, Indians Fakter

Joe DiMaggio Has Been Spark-Plug For Yanks, Pirates Top Dodgers

AL EPPERLY IN FIRST VICTORY

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 6.—Day by day Joe DiMaggio—San Francisco's gift to New York—makes Col. Jake Ruppert, multimillionaire owner of the Yankees, look like the best bargainer in the United States.

Col. Jake has paid and is still paying top salaries in baseball but at that he is getting a bargain all along the line. Babe Ruth proved a cheap buy for him at $80,000. Lou Gehrig came in at $50,000. But Joe DiMaggio at $25,000 looks like the best and cheapest bargain the colonel ever made.

The Yankees were getting nowhere in Detroit, which the Indians swept like champions, reveals just one of the little changes wrought by Old Oscar. Kenneth Keltner was the central figure in the affair. Keltner, with all the eagerness of a healthy rookie trying to make the grade, had been pressing with all his might since the opening of the season. He had driven a dozen long balls to the outfield. Several times he had been robbed by the kind of catches that smack of embezzlement.

When and if they do, their ascent will be due largely, not only to the inspirational force of Jolting Joe, but to the blustering power of his big bat.

Today Joe is hitting at a merry 459 clip, and while he can't be expected to continue at such a dizzy pace, certainly should hit at least 360 and give all corners an argument for home run honors despite his belated start.

Joe's latest contribution to the Yankee cause was a single, a triple and his third homer—the lot being good for four runs—as the Yanks overpowered the Browns for the third straight time, 12 to 10. Why, at $25,000, the man is positively a gift.

And speaking of bargains, Hank Greenberg hit his fifth homer and Rudy York got two, as the Tigers downed the Red Sox, 7-5, in a game enlivened by a nice little fist fight between Ben Chapman and George Tebbetts.

Senators Top Indians.
The White Sox called on their newest addition, Frank Gabel, to top the Athletics, 10-4, aided no little by homers contributed by Boze Berger and Gerry Walker.

The Senators staggered through to an 8-6 decision over the Indians who are finding the going a little rougher in the east than they did in the west.

The Giants, too, are finding their road trip west rather rocky. The Reds knocked them off again, 5-2, behind the six-hit pitching of Weaver and Bengie A. wild throw by Mel Ott put the rollers under the Giants.

Lucas In Shape.
Old Red Lucas held the Dodgers to five hits, the Pirates winning, 4-2, and Milt Shoffner, the Beas' aged rookie, downed the Cardinals, 5-2.

The Cubs came close to a National league record for runs scored in one inning when they put over 12 runs in the eighth against the Phillies. The record is 14. They pounded out 16 hits, including three doubles, as many triples and homers by Collins and Galan, and these mixed with 13 passes, were good for a 21-2 decision.

Al Epperly, one of those strong armed Iowa farm boys, who is celebrating his 20th birthday today, held the Phils to six hits for his major league debut.

Clifton Flats Team To Be Re-Organized

Monday evening, May 6, in the home of Chuck Heidish, 1314 East Washington street, a group of enthusiastic baseball men will gather for the purpose of re-organizing the Clifton Flats baseball team.

During the course of the evening, plans will be furthered for a fast independent team. The meeting starts at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge includes: Chuck Heidish, Butler, J. Quinn, Russ Houck, Red Wrona, C. VanEman, P. Coates, Joe Lenhart, P. Ryan, H. Ryan, Book, Bernie Gormel, Tunney White.

DeCaprios Upset Princeton Team

The DeCaprio softball team of the junior league, handed Princeton a 9 to 6 defeat yesterday at the Princeton field. Cozza and Cowden held the losers to seven hits.

Tonight the DeCaprios will play the Nobils of the Senior league. It was announced by Manager "F" Augustine.

Score by innings:
R. H. E.
DeCaprios 9 20 203 200—9 11 1
Princeton 6 101 030 020—6 7 5
Batteries—Princeton: C. Myers and Maguire; DeCaprios: Cozza, Cowden and Gennock, Corio.

TALES IN TIDBITS

By BILL BRAUCHER
Central Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 6.—The early bird catches the worm, and what the early prognosticator usually gets is the bird. But, the unseemliness of the hour to the contrary notwithstanding, here goes Bill out on that limb again for birds, worms, or what have you.

These Cleveland Indians are showing not only new spirit, but new thinking ability, and if they don't go on to win a pennant this year, the whole Tribe should be invited to a permanent ducking party off one of the Lake Erie piers. Pitchers? The Indians have a million of them, with hitters to match, and that second base problem some of the experts were writing about during the spring training season has been ironed out very satisfactorily by Sammy Hale.

The difference that Oscar Vitt has made as manager of the Tribe is tremendous. Even leggyards have snapped out of their sedentary habits under the prodding of Old Os. The team has lost that dead pan aspect of its years under Walter Johnson and Steve O'Neill. Old Os keeps talking to everybody at the time, not giving a man a chance to sit down and lapse into a comfortable coma.

An incident of a recent series in Detroit, which the Indians swept like champions, reveals just one of the little changes wrought by Old Oscar. Kenneth Keltner was the central figure in the affair. Keltner, with all the eagerness of a healthy rookie trying to make the grade, had been pressing with all his might since the opening of the season. He had driven a dozen long balls to the outfield. Several times he had been robbed by the kind of catches that smack of embezzlement.

Did Vitt's phrase take? Well, a week later in Cleveland stadium, the Indians were engaging the Tigers again in the stadium on the lake front. Harder had pitched a masterful game, but showed signs of weakening in the ninth inning. One Tiger run crossed the plate, making the score 4 to 3, with the tying run on first with none out.

Vitt called Harder out and sent in young Al Milnar, southpaw reliever, for his baptism in the major leagues, with nobody but Dixie Walker, Charley Gehringer and Hank Greenberg coming up. The big portside stopped them cold, putting the third out in the books by striking out Greenberg.

And the whole Indian bench rushed out as one man, whacked young Al on the back and bore the grinning pitcher in triumph to the showers.

Then came the day when he "caught short" of one and drove

Hamlin May Get Fine-Suspended By Dodger Chief

(International News Service)

CINCINNATI, O., May 6.—An intramural wrangle within the ranks of the Brooklyn Dodgers posed for Vice President Larry MacPhail today the problem of what action to take on the future of Pitcher Luke Hamlin.

MacPhail flew from Brooklyn to Pittsburgh following a quotation blasting Manager Burchfield Grimes, ascribed to Hamlin by the New York sports writers. MacPhail declined to say whether he would fine or suspend the lanky righthander, but he declared:

"No man who is being paid to be a player is going to manage my ball club."

Old Timers To Play Ryantown

Stars Of Yesteryears Will Try To Teach Ryantown Something

It is quietly rumored around over in the West Side sector, especially around Ryantown, that the Old Timers under Howard Hunter have arranged a game with the Ryantown team of the city league for tonight at 6 o'clock and that the boys who used to be good enough to make it tough for the 1938 youngsters.

Mike Linz, an old timer in the art of flinching the horseshoe, will take up the chores for the Old Timers at the start of the game and if Mike is right the Ryantowns will find his offerings just as baffling as they were back in 1920.

Manager Joe Samuels is somewhat worried about the game, and will use his ace hunter, Dory Gunnelt, on the knoll. Gunnelt's lightning fast one is figured to wheeze past the Old Timers at a merry clip (maybe).

In the Old Timers lineup will be such familiar faces as Charles Bishop, Howard Hunter, Mike Linz, Ducky Samuels and Tom McCrumb. All told, the Old Timers resemble a sort of trust on the loose, and there should be many a laugh at the Ryantown ball orchard tonight.

Softball League Will Open Monday

Rambling Around World Of Sports

Derby Day Here Again... the blue grass country of Kentucky draws the attention of the sports world Saturday... the southern lads and lassies will play hosts as the 64th running of the Kentucky Derby draws near... we have never picked a "darn" winner and present our guide only because it is a matter of form... we advise you not to think the baby's back on our days... Stavehand looked like a play hatched to a milk action and he put a whiff of the California air... he pulled through with five in a row, including the Santa Anita purse all this in 19 days... he is a brother of Speedy... he really can pound those boys around when it means something... since he has been withdrawn our cups are on Fighting Fox, full brother of Gallant Fox, winner of the event in 1930... he has developed more speed and is an exceptionally good sprinter... in our mind, Bull Lea, the brown colt, looks like the nag to wonder about... the Len see eye has been stepping at a high clip... he is plenty tough to beat... Neddy is a dark horse... Neddy is a strong plug, in that he has a tough time at the gateway... if he gets away at the start, look out, he can really burn up the track... Dauber is an exceptionally fine finisher... in the Santa Anita Handicap he finished right after Stavehand... plenty of money going on this race, whose grandpappy is Man O'War... Menow is a darn nice looking horse and his owner comes from the old school... a fine sprinter which lacks that championship stuff... now we come to the nicest looking horse, Lawrin... his workouts have been great, but they don't pay on that... Boochon King is one of those hit and miss businesses, good today and a bum tomorrow... The Chief—a nice fellow who takes his carrots like a man... a good sprinter and nothing else... at the finish line in the beautiful Blue grass land it will be Fighting Fox.

A gander through sports land... Fordham University distill out 107 letters to nine teams and three riders... the Brooklyn Dodgers, who have been handicapped due to the lack of a catcher, have signed Mervyn Shea, former White Sox backstop... Manager Mauer Dempsey claims Joe Louis will slip fast unless he gets plenty of mitt action... Bob Feller and Emil "Dutch" Leonard, National League castoffs, gave 10,000 fans the best pitching exhibition in years in Washington, Wednesday... we doubt if any two pitchers will duplicate that pitching performance this year... Tee Hee Hee Department... one of the funniest incidents of the baseball season occurred at the Polo Grounds a few days ago... Fred Goetz, a famous pitcher, was belted out of the box and instinctively started for the New York Giants dressing room... the fans reminded him that he was a Dodger and not a Terryman... A touch of golf... probably one of the oddest happenings in golf was experienced by Eugene Grabensur, of Niagara Falls... a few years ago he scored a double eagle and sailed away the golf ball as a souvenir... he ran out of his favorite brand of balls, later, and took out the lucky ball... he scored an ace... Council Opens Insurance Bids

Matter Of Purchasing Switchboard Discussed; Other Matters Transacted

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6.—Bids for insurance of various kinds were opened and read at the regular meeting of the borough Council on Thursday evening in the city building and were referred to the proper committee for tabulation and thorough checking. According to a report of the electric light committee, the switchboard at the power plant is in a serious condition. The switchboard is large enough for present requirements. Inquiries on the part of the committee and the cost would be approximately $5,000 without the installation charge, which would be a considerable amount. Being an emergency measure, it was not included in this year's budget and the matter of cost of a new switchboard is an important factor, as was brought out in the discussion. No action was taken upon the matter. A recommendation that an Egin sweep be purchased at a cost of $7,190 was passed and the order will be placed at once. An ordinance regulating the sale of plotted or unplotted land was passed on second and final reading. Suspending the rules, an ordinance providing for a sanitary sewer in the South Line of Wagonway avenue, was passed on first and final reading. The borough manager was authorized to attend the state health convention to be held at State College in June. An invitation to attend the Meadville Sequi Centennial next week was accepted. Petitions for street improvements in Hillside avenue and in Park avenue were given to the street committee for investigation and report.

At a request of the playground commission, it was agreed to make the borough's appropriation payable in sums of $500 beginning June 1 and continuing July 1 and August 1. A resolution was submitted by the rules and regulations committee that no application for borough employment be considered unless the applicant had been a resident of this city for not less than 6 months. After much discussion the matter was referred back to the committee for revision. Burgess William McKinley gave an interesting report of the trip made by a delegation of public officials of various counties to the State Industrial school at Moritzburg on Thursday.

The matter of oiling the streets was discussed and Frank Burdett suggested that the oil sweeper be used for oiling the streets and the street committee and rules and regulations committee. Jack Kimpel Is Rotary Speaker To Organize Second Scout Troop At Matheny School With Frank Patton Leader

ELLWOOD CITY, May 6.—Jack Kimpel, local jeweler, was the speaker last evening at the meeting of the Rotary club in the Presbyterian church, and gave an interesting address on the subject of keeping up with the time. Mr. Mackasek introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Kimpel gave a most interesting story of the early efforts of man to keep track of the passing time; burning ropes with knots at intervals, various forms of sun dials, water clocks (clocks) and even with hole in 17th hour glasses, candles oil lamps. In 1525 there came an iron clock. From this time on he traced the development of the modern watch, named from the watchman who carried such a timepiece in his "watching." Mr. Kimpel told his hearers that there were some 211 parts in the watches which they were carrying and, of course, that their watches were all dirty. Oiling a watch is a highly technical affair and should not be attempted with the household oil can. The watch of the future promises to be the present time to be an electrical watch with a high degree of accuracy. The speaker was kind enough not to press the point that the watch was not only a prize possession, but was to be obeyed. An informing and interesting address. The next meeting will be a joint meeting with the other luncheon clubs of the city, next Thursday evening at the Country Club, under the auspices of the Life Insurance Underwriters' association.
